

A FEMINIST PERSPECTIVE ON PEACE ACTIVISM

Palestinian activist Ola Shtewee and Israeli activist Hannah Safran speak on behalf of the joint struggle of Israeli and Palestinian women to bring a just peace to the region

Hannah Safran is a lecturer at Emek-Yisrael College, founder of Women in Black, past coordinator of Isha L'Isha, the Haifa Feminist Center, and a member of the Coalition for Just Peace in Israel.

Ola Shtewee is the legal department coordinator for the Palestinian-Israeli Feminist Group Kayan.

Thursday, November 29
4:30 pm
106 Seelye, Smith College

This event has been organized by the Smith Student Alliance for Middle East Peace and the Faculty for Israeli-Palestinian Peace.
For more information, contact China Sajadian at 818-726-4182, or Yoav Elinevsky at 413-687-2632,
or email csajadia@email.smith.edu